NEW TOBACCO MARKET.

Farmers' Warehouse Starts With a Fine Patronage.

a Fine Patronage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PAMPLIN CITY, VA., November 16.—
Farmers' warehouse of this town was opened with a great crowd this morning. Notwithstanding the dry week and poor season for handling tobacco, the formers came in from all parts of the adjoining counties. At an early hour the warehouse shed was full of wagons, and long before the time for sale many were lined up in the streets, awaiting their turn at the doors.

The sales amounted to over 20.0% turn at the doors.

The sales amounted to over 20,0% pounds—a most successful beginning. The grades offered were for the most part of inferior quality, yet there was some good leaf offered, bringing as much as 144.50.

The management was much pleased with the liberal response of furmers, and also at their general satisfaction at prices paid.

Fire in School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 16.—The public school-house at Stokesiand was partially destroyed by fire yesterday, and the sessions have been suspended until the damage can be repaired.

The fire started from the piping from the stove and caught in the roof. About twenty-five children and the teacher, Miss Mary Martin, were in the building, which is a one-story frame structure. All of the occupants escaped without injury, and the blaze was extinguished by a bucket brigade after about one-third of the building had been destroyed.
